EUROPEAN VALUES IN A GLOBAL CONTEXT:

Staff Week for IRO Staff

APRIL 13-16, 2027

UCLouvain Saint-Louis Bruxelles and the Circle U. Alliance are pleased to invite IRO staff from their partner institutions worldwide to a four-day Staff Week in Brussels.

This event will provide a unique opportunity to exchange practices, explore how universities contribute to democratic participation and European values, and strengthen international cooperation networks.

What to expect

1. Interactive workshops, discussions and a conference on civic engagement and democratic participation and EU values.
2. Presentations of institutional, alliance-wide and student-led initiatives.
3. Visit of EU institutions.
4. Insights into UCLouvain Saint-Louis Bruxelles, Circle U. cooperation.
5. Networking and peer-learning opportunities.
6. Cultural activities to discover Brussels.

Please note that the programme is currently being finalised.

Costs and expenses

Participation is free of charge. Participants from EU institutions may be eligible for Erasmus+ Staff Training and are invited to contact their respective International Relations Office for more details.

UCLouvain SAINT-LOUIS BRUXELLES

Circle U. European University Alliance

Applications are open until 31 October. Interested participants can apply via the online application form.
Applications will be reviewed during the first half of November by the organizing committee. To provide as many institutions as possible with the opportunity to participate, the number of participants from the same institution may be limited.
Selected applicants will receive a confirmation email with practical information after the review process. Please note that no applications will be confirmed before all applications have been reviewed.

APPLICATION FORM

Contact

- For Saint-Louis partners: international-slb@uclouvain.be
- For Circle U. members: infocircleu@uclouvain.be